RITZ CHAMBER PLAYERS ANNOUNCE 7TH CONCERT SERIES

WHO: THE RITZ CHAMBER PLAYERS, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR TERRANCE PATTERSON

WHAT: The Ritz Chamber Players, presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida, announces its 7th season of spectacular Chamber Music.

This season welcomes back the award-winning, preeminent, African-American musicians, many of whom perform with renowned organizations such as the New York Philharmonic, Boston Symphony, Philadelphia Orchestra, and the London Symphony. This unique and "remarkable" ensemble presents stirring interpretations of classical music and highlights the works of contemporary black composers. The Ritz Chamber Players anticipate another year filled with inspiring educational programs in our schools, and throughout the Jacksonville communities.

The opening concert will feature Mozart's Piano Quartet in Eb Major, and works by Bohuslav Martinu and Bruch.

COMPOSER: "Pulitzer Prize" nominee, David Baker to serve as Composer-In-Residence

WHEN: Thursday, December 6, 2007 at 7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Jacoby Hall, Times-Union Center for the Performing Arts
